Journals in other disciplines

The following journals have published at least one empirical article on philanthropy.

The list is based on the literature review 'Generosity and Philanthropy' that René Bekkers and Pamala Wiepking wrote for the Science of Generosity Request for proposals. The review is available at www.understandingphilanthropy.com.

As a result of the selection criteria for the literature review, the list is not exhaustive.

The list is especially likely to lack names of journals that published articles on NGOs, nonprofit management, volunteering or corporate social responsibility. Also the list is likely not to include journals that publish non-empirical articles.
