

Institutional member (595 EUR per year)

An organisation that has a formal relationship with an higher education institute in Europe

- Unlimited number of individuals attached to institutional membership
- Support ERNOP in its mission to advance, coordinate and promote philanthropy research in Europe
- Stronger representation of research on philanthropy in Europe towards stakeholders
- Preference of being invited to present the work of your institution in the ERNOP Science and Society Seminars
- Preference of academic publications turned into ERNOP Research Notes
- Preference in joint research proposals and applications
- Invited to participate in A Gathering of Academic research centers and chairs on Philanthropy in Europe (AGAPE) to build your institution and develop joint projects
- Meetings with ERNOP Societal Partners, Institutional Supporters and Associated Supporting Institutional Members to present your institutions key research questions and have in-depth-conversations with thought leaders in philanthropy.
- Clear representation of the institution on the ERNOP Website

- Representation of institution in the yearly published 'Snapshot of Academic Research Centres and Chairs on Philanthropy in Europe' Double voting right in the ERNOP General Assembly
- All ERNOP Science and Society Seminar Recordings for all individuals attached to the institutional membership
- All ERNOP Conference papers and conference proceedings for all individuals attached to the institutional membership
- All ERNOP Research Notes for all individuals attached to the institutional membership
- Access to conference registration and conference participation for all individuals attached to the institutional membership (participation fee applies)