

Supporting associated institutional members (595 EUR per year)

An organisation that does not have a formal relationship with a higher education institute in Europe

- Unlimited number of individuals attached to associated institutional membership
- Support ERNOP in its mission to advance, coordinate and promote philanthropy research in Europe
- Preference in listing topics for ERNOP Science and Society Seminars
- Preference of being listed as 'practitioner expert' in developing ERNOP Research Notes
- Preferential partner in joint research proposals and applications
- Get connected to more than 200 academic researchers on philanthropy in Europe
- Meetings with representatives of key research centers and chairs in philanthropy in Europe to discuss key research questions and have in-depth-conversations with academic leaders in philanthropy.

- Clear representation of the institution on the ERNOP Website under 'associated institutional members'
- All ERNOP Science and Society Seminar Recordings for all individuals attached to the institutional membership
- All ERNOP Conference papers and conference proceedings for all individuals attached to the institutional membership
- All ERNOP Research Notes for all individuals attached to the institutional membership
- Access to conference registration and conference participation for all individuals attached to the institutional membership (participation fee applies)